The University
HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION

THE LANDS OF THE ABOVE NAMED ASSOCIAtion are situated in San Francisco and are eligibly and most desirably located adjoining the grounds purchased by the Presbyterian University Society, on which College buildings are to be at once erected. The site is less than thirty minutes ride from Montgomery street lying just west or back of the lands of the South San Francisco Homestead and Railroad Association and the Bay View Park, almost within a stone's throw of ST. MARY'S COLLEGE.

The tract will require little or no grading, there being scarcely a single lot on which it would not be safe to build without any change of grade. It commands a

Beautiful View of the Bay,

And its opposite shore, and has a soil of extreme richness. So great are the natural attractions of the spot that very many of the wealthy citizens of San Francisco have already purchased whole blocks in the same tract, and design building residences thereon.

The Rev. E. Thomas, D D.,

Is President of the Association, Lester L Robinson formerly Vice President of the Sacramento Railroad Company, is the Treasurer, and Thomas B Lewis, formerly of Portland, Secretary.

Four lots, 25x120 feet each, constitute a share, costing $215—paid in monthly installments of $10 each, after the first payment of $..0 has been made.

Maps and books giving full information of the workings of the Association can be obtained at the store of J L. PARRISH & CO.

It is an easy and a cheap way for young men to procure property which will in a few years make them independent.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

DATES TO MAY 13.

A Baltimore Defaulter

BALTIMORE May 11.—Wentz has been sentenced to six years imprisonment for his default in the Mechanics' bank.

Jeff Davis' Case

RICHMOND May 11.—Jeff Davis arrived safe this afternoon. He was escorted by the regulars to Spottswood House. There was no cheering and no hissing by the large crowd of negroes and the few whites who were in the streets. Jeff was taken up a back street to the hotel. The carriage was guarded by fifty cavalry. One of the counsel of Jeff stated that if bail should be refused, the President will direct his release until he can be tried.

Two bridal parties were on the same boat with Jeff Davis and a woman died on board during the passage. About one hundred friends visited Jeff this evening. The infantry will encamp permanently in the park in the city.

Mexican Advices

GALVESTON, May 11.—Tampico advices of May 6th say Gomez commanding at that point revolted against Juarez May 6th and was dishonorably dismissed from the army by the President. Gen Pavoni being sent to act as his successor. It is said that Gomez embezzled about $8 000 of the receipts from customs.

Tampico is closed as a port of entry. Pavoni has only a small force, incapable of attacking Gomez who has 2,500 men. Canales threatens to espouse the cause of Gomez.

Maximilian led a sortie at the head of 6,000 men, April 23d. The fight lasted all day, Maximilian being driven back. It was believed at San Luis that Queretaro had fallen as the prisoners taken on the 23d represented that provisions were very scarce.

Vera Cruz was completely invested and the siege was progressing. Horseflesh was used as food.

The death of Miramon is confirmed.

A committee of ladies sallied out of the City of Mexico asking a guarantee of general safety, which was conditionally granted, excluding Marquez and other Imperialists. Diaz was receiving reinforcements daily.

Story about Russian America.

NEW YORK, May 11.—Robt J Walker states that Russian America was offered to us during Polk's Administration for nothing and refused.

Southern America

NEW YORK, May 11.—The Arizona from Aspinwall arrived this evening. The gunboat Wateree arrived at Panama April 22d. Commander Poulding died April 23th of dysentery, and was buried on the island of Perico, with the honors of war.

Lima (Peru) dates to April 22d have been received. President Prado had refused to accept the resignation of his Cabinet.

The Powhatan was at Valparaiso April 16th.

There is a report that Brazil and Spain had formed an alliance against Peru and Chile which has created uneasiness. The revolution in Southern Peru had been squelched.

Advices from Bogota says that Mosquera has withdrawn the exequatur of the Consul at Carthagena and the English Minister has expressed regret thereat.

The Soldan, a Spanish frigate in search of the Royo, has arrived at Santa Martha. Her commander was inquiring as to the Royo's nationality, as she left the United States under the Colombian flag. Mosquera denied that she was a Government vessel and the frigate went to Carthagena in pursuit. Capt Reed, of the Royo, was released at Magdalena.

The national Government was successful over the revolutionists at Magdalena.

Finances—New Land Offices.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—There are $379 540,000 in bonds held in trust by the treasury for the national banks. The disbursements of the treasury for the week amount to $2,230,000. The national bank currency in circulation at this date is $298,050,000.

Orders have been issued creating an additional land district in California, comprising the counties of Sierra, Nevada, Placer, El Dorado, Amador, Calaveras, Alpine and Sacramento, with the land office at Sacramento.

Two additional districts have been created in Nevada, the first composed of the county of Lander, office at Austin; the second composed of the counties of Nye, Esmeralda and Lincoln, office at Belmont. An additional district is located in Idaho, comprising all the Territory north of Salmon river mountains, office at Lewiston. Instructions are being prepared for the officers of these districts with a view to developing their mineral resources.

Indian Disturbances.

SALT LAKE, May 12—midnight.—The Indians have burned Rock Creek, a swing station twelve miles west of Cooper Creek, and run off some stock. They are encamped in considerable force within six miles of the latter place. An attack on the station is expected at daylight.

The Big Laramie office has been moved east seven miles to Fort Sanders. There is not a sufficient force there to guard the line. A small party of cavalry have just left Fort Sanders to go to the relief of Cooper's Creek.

SALT LAKE May 13.—The telegraph operator from Horseshoe Station, who came west yesterday, was run back by the Indians. A number of men started from Fort Caspar east, this morning. The operator at Elk Mountain reports having seen numbers of Indians about in the hills, and expects an attack. There are not to exceed eight persons each at Elk Mountain, Cooper's Creek and Big Laramie and two persons at each swing station. All are poorly armed. Troops will go from Fort Bridger to guard the stations. Steps have been taken to protect the overland stages and telegraph lines.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH

SAN FRANCISCO May 14.—Upon the arrival of the Montana yesterday, Capt. Leas arrested a passenger named Aaron Meyer on a charge of larceny and abduction, it being alleged that he had stolen a lot of shoes valued at sixty dollars and abducted a young German girl named Linda Miller from her home in Williamsburg, New York. Upon being arrested Meyer was taken to the station house, whence the girl accompanied him, and there denied having stolen any goods and proposed to assign all his property to Chief Crowley, to be held to satisfy any claims that might be made against him. He accordingly assigned four hundred dollars worth of shoes and $300 in coin and a gold watch and chain. Chief Justice Crowley was puzzled as to the proper course to be pursued in regard to the abduction matter, and after a consultation with various public officers concluded if possible to have the runaways married. The proposition was favorably received by them, and in company with witnesses they visited a clergyman and were made one. Meyer and his wife are now at liberty. They say that they ran away because her people were opposed to the marriage, and treated her cruelly on account of her engagement with Meyer.

Decision of Judge Deady in the "Black Crook" Injunction Case

The decision of Judge Deady in the "Black Crook" case, recently delivered in San Francisco, has been the subject of much comment, and in some instances, of misrepresentation. To show what it is, we publish it in full. It will be seen that the Judge decided that the play, being of a grossly immoral and indecent character, was therefore without the protection of the law respecting copyrights.

Circuit Court United States, District of California, February Term, 1867.

Julien Martinetti et al vs Thomas Maguire et al—Suit in equity for injunction.

Thomas Maguire et al. vs Julien Martinetti et al—Suit in equity for injunction.

MOTION FOR TEMPORARY INJUNCTION.

The plaintiff in each of the above entitled suits moves the Court for an order allowing an injunction until the hearing. By consent the motions were heard together upon the bills and oral testimony of the parties.

The plaintiff Martinetti charges that on October 17, 1866, at New York, one James Schonberg composed and copyrighted a dramatic composition called the Black Rook, and that said Schonberg at the same time assigned such play to the plaintiff. That said plaintiff is the proprietor of the Metropolitan Theatre in San Francisco, and is about to produce on the stage said play of the Black Rook. That the defendant, Maguire, by improper means, procured a manuscript copy of the Black Rook from an employee of the plaintiffs, and is exhibiting the same at the theatre of the defendant, Maguire's Opera House in San Francisco, to the injury of the plaintiff. That the defendant, before making such exhibition, changed the name of the play to the Black Crook, and also changed the names of the characters and made some slight alterations in the dialogue and incidents of the play.

The plaintiff, Maguire, charges that about the first of July, 1866, one Charles M. Barras, at New York, composed a dramatic composition called the Black Crook and copyrighted the same. That said play was exhibited at Niblo's Theater, in New York, for the benefit of the author, early in September, 1866, and continuously since that date, with great gain to the author. That about March 16, 1867, the plaintiff became the exclusive assignee of the right to exhibit the Black Crook in the State of California, and in pursuance of such right and assignment is now exhibiting the same at his theater in San Francisco—Maguire's Opera House. That during the exhibition of the Black Crook, at Niblo's, as aforesaid, the defendant procured a copy of the same, by employing one Schonberg, or other person, to attend such exhibition and take down the parts in short hand, as they were spoken and acted by the players, and that the defendant is now about to exhibit such play from the copy so obtained, at his theater in San Francisco under the name of Black Rook, to the damage of the plaintiff. A number of witnesses have been examined as to the identity of the plays. So far as I can judge from the testimony the plays are identical. One of them must be a colorable imitation of the other. The strong similarity in the names—Black Crook and Black Rook—is enough of itself to suggest that the one is an imitation of the other. All the disinterested witnesses who have been present at the exhibition of Black Crook at Niblo's and Maguire's, agree in stating that they thought the play the same. It is admitted and charged by Martinetti, that the play now on exhibition is substantially the play which he calls the Black Rook and claims to be the proprietor of. For the purpose of the comparison, we may assume that the Black Rook is being played at Maguire's and the Black Crook at Niblo's. Whatever technical differences there may be in the exhibition at these two places, if the result is so nearly similar as to produce the impression of identity upon ordinary spectators it seems to me that one ought to be held a mere colorable imitation of the other. A play like this has no value except as it is appreciated by the public. If the similarity in general character and effect between the alleged imitation and the original is sufficient to deceive the ordinary public who witness such exhibitions, the one is a piracy of the other. Which is the original and which is the imitation? The dates of their respective compositions seems to furnish a satisfactory answer to this question. The Black Crook was composed and copyrighted in the early part of July, 1866, while the Black Rook was not composed until the middle of the October following, and after the former had been exhibited to the public at Niblo's for at least six weeks. Unless both are originals—unless this strong similarity is a mere coincidence and not the result of design, I must conclude that the Black Crook is the original, and the Black Rook the imitation or copy. As neither of these spectacles, in their essentials, have much claim to originality, I suppose the coincidence is possible. But it is not probable, and the other circumstances tend to establish one conclusion—that the manuscript of the so called Black Rook, procured by Martinetti in New York from Schonberg, was a mere colorable imitation or copy of the Black Crook, obtained by improper means. Whether Martinetti knew this at the time or since is immaterial. In any event he has only the rights in the premises which Schonberg would have, if the latter were the party litigant. Under the circumstances, the reasonable presumption is, that Martinetti did not purchase the Black Rook as an original composition, but rather that he employed Schonberg or some other to procure a copy of the Black Crook. No evidence is produced of the alleged purchase of the Black Rook, except the allegation to that effect in the bill. If Martinetti had purchased an original composition, or what he believed to be an original composition, called the Black Rook, which has been copyrighted by the author, he would naturally have taken an assignment to himself, and been able to produce it in evidence or account for its absence. This omission tends strongly to negative the allegation of purchase by Martinetti.

It is admitted that Maguire has the right to exhibit the Black Crook in California, and also that the present exhibition is being made not from the copy obtained from the author at the time of the assignment by him to Maguire, but from a copy of the manuscript which Martinetti alleges he obtained from Schonberg. Maguire's copy is now on the way here from New York.

If Martinetti's copy had been obtained by legitimate means, it being prior in point of time to the assignment to Maguire, he would have a right to make the exhibition from that copy, as against the author or his assigns. In such case the Martinetti's copy would be his literary property, and the purchase of a copy of this manuscript, by improper means, would be a fraud upon him. The purchase of the copy from McCabe, by Maguire's manager, was made under such circumstances, and would not give Maguire any right as against the lawful proprietor. At the time of the sale by McCabe of the copy, he declined to tell when or how he got it. Maguire's manager then knew that the Martinettis were rehearsing the spectacle set down in the manuscript, and he had good reason to believe that he was purchasing stolen property, and whether he believed so or not, as such was the fact, the effect was the same—supposing that Martinetti had the literary property in the manuscript which he obtained in New York. By literary property, I mean, of course, the composition and not the paper. But the Black Rook, or manuscript of the Martinettis, was itself a plagiarism of, or a copy from the Black Crook. This being the case, it was stolen property in the same sense that the copy procured by Maguire's manager was. Then Martinetti has no literary property in his manuscript. He is neither the author, assignee or donee. For this reason he cannot enjoin Maguire from the use of the copy obtained by him, however obtained. More than this, I suppose that the owner or assignee of a play, who finds that a colorable imitation of it, or a true copy surreptitiously obtained, is in the hands of a third party, may, as a matter of precaution or economy, purchase the same, as the cheapest and easiest way to protect his rights, even if he should know at the time that the person of whom he makes the purchase obtained it from another improperly. In effect he is only buying his own property—buying his peace—instead of going to law.

This, I believe, disposes of all three grounds on which Martinetti relies for an injunction, and his motion therefore must be denied, with costs.

On the other hand, if this is a dramatic composition within the purpose and meaning of the Act of Congress, Maguire's motion to enjoin Martinetti should be allowed. As at present advised, I do not think it such a composition. All the witnesses agree, particularly the experts—that the play has no originality, and that it consists almost wholly of mere scenic effects taken from well known dramas and operas. The testimony of W B. Hamilton, the stage manager of the Metropolitan, is explicit and satisfactory upon this point. He has been an actor since 1828, in Europe and America. He appears to be intelligent in his profession, and impressed me with his candor. The Black Crook is a mere spectacle—in the language of the craft, a spectacular piece. It has no pretensions to be called a dramatic composition. The dialogue is very scant, and appears in the light of a mere accessory—a piece of word machinery tacked on to the ballet and tableaux.

The principal part and attraction of the spectacle seems to be the exhibition of women in novel dress or undress, or in striking attitudes or action. The closing scene is called Paradise, and consists, as witness Hamilton expresses it, "of women lying about loose"—a sort of Mohamedan paradise, I take it, with imitation grottos and earthly houris.

To call such a spectacle a "dramatic composition" is an abuse of language. An exhibition of model artists, or a menagerie of wild beasts, might as well be claimed a dramatic composition, and claim to be entitled to copyright. A menagerie is an interesting spectacle, and so may this be, but it is nothing more. An exhibition of women, whether in the ballet or tableaux, or even "lying around loose in such a paradise," is not a dramatic composition and entitled to the benefit and protection of copyright.

Again, the Act of Congress enacts that a "dramatic composition," to be entitled to copyright, must be "suited for public representation." What is intended by the word suited? Simply that the composition is adapted to the stage and capable of being produced upon it. While it means this, I am inclined to think that it means something more, that to be suited to public representation, it must be fit to be represented. I do not suppose or pretend that Congress has the power to interfere directly and prescribe a rule of morals on this subject, but the benefit or copyright is a benefit conferred by Congressional legislation. In conferring this privilege upon authors and inventors, I suppose it proper and constitutional for Congress so to legislate as to encourage virtue and discourage immorality. The power to pass copyright and patent laws is derived from the Constitution.

The Constitution expressly asserts the object for which the power is granted. It is "to promote the progress of science and useful arts" (Con, Art. 1, Sec. 8, sub. 9) From this it expressly appears that the Constitution did not intend that Congress should pass laws to promote immorality, or anything except science and the useful arts. For this reason, an instrument or invention expressly designed to facilitate the commission of crime, as murder, burglary, forgery or counterfeiting however ingenious, would not be entitled to be patented. So a real dramatic composition, if grossly indecent and calculated to corrupt the morals of the people, would not be entitled to a copyright. Such an exhibition neither "promotes the progress of science or the useful arts," but the contrary. The Constitution does not authorize the protection of such productions, and Congress cannot be presumed to have intended to have gone beyond their power to give them such protection. In this view of the matter I very much doubt whether the spectacle of the Black Crook is entitled to the benefit of copyright, even if it could pretend to be a dramatic composition.

This Court does not pretend to be the conservator of the public morals in this respect. That is a matter for the local Legislatures. But in giving construction to the Constitution and laws, when legitimately called upon to do, it is the duty of all Courts to uphold public virtue, and discourage everything that tends to impair it. It cannot be denied that this spectacle of the Black Crook merely panders to the prurient curiosity by very questionable exhibition of the female person. The lawfulness of such an exhibit on depends upon the laws of the place where it is exhibited. But when the author or proprietor of the spectacle asks the power of this Court to protect him in the exclusive right to make such an exhibition, under the copyright law of Congress, the matter assumes a very different aspect. I am strongly impressed with the conviction that an injunction should not be allowed in this case, on the ground that the spectacle is not "suited for public representation"—not fit to be exhibited—within the meaning of that word as used in the Act of Congress, and on the further ground that it is not within the scope of the power of Congress to encourage the production of such exhibitions, as they neither promote the progress of science or the useful arts.

Maguire's motion for an injunction must also be denied, with costs. DEADY, Justice.

A Difference

We give below an extract from a letter written by an ex Confederate officer to the Charlotte (N. C) Guardian. It is a quite remarkable contrast with the blusterings of unsubjugated Copperhead editors—so much so as to make an extract interesting to the reader. It is evident from the following that it is the Copperhead, not the Confederate, who, after all, is to die in the last ditch. The extract is specially commended to the perusal of the fulminating editors of the Confederate stripe in this State. The writer remarks:

It is not for us to decide whether we were in or out of the Union at the end of the war. We surrendered all on the battlefield. Call this "eating dirt" if you please. That work is all over with me. I gobbled up my share (a pretty large one) when I surrendered and took the oath of allegiance. Had I not intended to swallow the rest of the programme, I should have refused to take the oath and left the country. But I admit my dirt was easier digested than I expected. My whole soul was in our lost cause. I did all I could to break up the Government of the United States. If we had whipped the Yankees, I should have insisted on their paying the whole expense of the war, and given ample guarantees that they would never more interfere with the institution of slavery. I think correlative rights are due them. But instead of these, they ask only our just proportion of their war debt (in the shape of taxes), and that slavery and all ideas on which it was founded should be eradicated, and that we should accept the new theory in good faith and give it a fair trial. We have refused to regard the negro as entitled to full legal rights. We would not extend to him even limited or qualified suffrage, and we hated those amongst our own people who favored even these concessions to this unhappy race. Time passed on. Two years have passed since the surrender. There have been no executions for treason, no edicts of banishment or exile, no confiscation, only a nominal military rule, and all our people, with a few prominent exceptions, restored to their rights and privileges. For me, as a conquered Confederate, (not rebel), I gladly and cordially embrace such terms of peace and amnesty from the people I fought to whip, and from the Government I sought to destroy. More than this, I have not lost my faith in free institutions. On the contrary, it is rather strengthened.

Let us by no means despair of our beloved South. Let us never desert the country for which we fought so heroically. Let us rather abandon our pride of caste. Let us abstain from every species of violence, even the violence of speech. Be not "provoked to anger." Let us cease to curse the negro, and seek to improve and elevate his condition, and set him, in our own persons, an example of industry, thrift and enterprise. Let us eschew politics, and learn to believe there are good men even among Unionists, Yankees and darkies. Let us give up all hope of ease, office and position, and go to the great want of the South—hard work. Do these things and many of us may live to see our down trodden section more prosperous and happy than ever before. Purified in the furnace of affliction, around her will gather and cling the rich memories of her heroic struggle, and she will yet rise as a "rock in the temple of right."

TUESDAY MORNING MAY 14, 1867.

The Rebel Leader

Personally Jefferson Davis is now the most insignificant of men yet it appears that he is to be again elevated to importance by putting him on trial as the representative of the 'Lost Cause' to ascertain from a jury of twelve men whether there has been a rebellion or not, and whether the right was on the side of the revolt and its instigators or on the side of the Government and its defenders And this is to be submitted to a Southern jury some and perhaps all of whom in judging Davis, will judge also themselves. It is exceedingly improbable that any jury can be found in Virginia to try the case impartially, because men will not convict themselves by convicting a person in whose crime they have shared Suppose then that Davis is acquitted. What will be the effect? Will it change the settled conviction of the nation as to his guilt and that of his accomplices in the rebellion? If twelve men of Virginia shall decide upon their oaths that there has been no rebellion, that Davis and his coadjutors committed no crime, that the right of States to secede is unquestionable, and that opposition thereto on the part of the Government is sheer usurpation, will such a decision change the mind of the people in regard to these questions? It is needless to say that a Virginia jury will not be allowed to set aside the results of the war and give the law, as expounded by John C Calhoun and Jefferson Davis, and reversed on the battle field, to a victorious nation No decision a jury could render would affect in the least degree the opinions of those who were true to the country in its day of peril and who adhered unswervingly to their determination that the rebellion should be put down But an acquittal of Davis would, nevertheless work incalculable mischief Every Copperhead would hail such a verdict with the wildest delight They demand his trial now because they believe a jury of his confederates will be obtained who will surely acquit him Were it the intention to try him by a Northern jury, they would enter a unanimous protest against putting him on trial at all They want a verdict in favor of the Southern Confederacy and a justification of their own conduct in winking at secession This they hope to get from a Confederate jury, in which event they will claim that the doctrine put forth by Buchanan and Black—the doctrine that there is no power under the Constitution to resist national dismemberment,—is firmly established. They expect from a Confederate jury a glorious vindication of Democratic principles, and an affirmance, under the form of law, of the doctrines which inspired the revolt of 1861. In other words, they look for justification for the last, and impunity for the next, rebellion. As they made common cause with Davis during the struggle, so his acquittal now would be their triumph.

But supposing he were convicted, what good result would follow? He is the only one of thousands, equally guilty with himself, who is likely to be brought to trial Nearly all the rest have been pardoned, and all the rest were long ago set at liberty The President has dealt with the great mass of the offenders as if they had committed no crime; where is the justice in holding a single one for capital punishment who is no more guilty, who is even less guilty, than a large number who have been permitted to resume every privilege they had forfeited? Had the leading spirits of the rebellion been sternly held to answer the demands of justice, had this policy never been departed from, had all who were equal in guilt been held to equal punishment, the sense of the nation would have applauded the act; but it is easy to see that if Jefferson Davis should alone be made to suffer, he would have the sympathy of mankind, and his execution, instead of having a salutary effect upon the people of the United States, would, in the end, operate precisely the other way

But it is not probable that if convicted, he would be suffered to receive the penalty. The President would pardon him, and he would go at liberty As matters now stand, is his conviction necessary to the public good? Would his conviction on a charge of treason add to the stability of the Government?

The people are already satisfied as to his guilt. They know the rebellion was a crime, and as a crime it was put down No verdict of a jury could make this belief firmer than it is. The people do not need to be told by a jury that treason has been committed. They know it already. And as a verdict of acquittal would not change their settled opinions as to Davis' guilt, so his conviction under the form of law would add nothing to the certainty of their knowledge that he is a traitor What is a verdict of twelve men worth in so stupendous a matter?

Had Davis and his principal confederates been executed in the presence of the grand army at Washington, the proceeding would have saved much trouble and embarrassment, and would, as well, have answered the ends of justice These men took the sword, they should have perished by it They invoked military law, they should have had an opportunity to realize its consequences But the formality of a trial at Richmond, with such a jury as is likely to be obtained there, will more nearly resemble a broad farce conducted under legal forms, than any other sort of proceeding If Davis is tried at all, it should be to convict, and not to acquit him. Either he is guilty of treason or the nation committed an unspeakable crime in spending so much treasure and blood to overthrow the organization of which he was the head. But a Virginia jury will try him only to acquit him. That much is reasonably certain. The advantages to be gained by his conviction under the present state of affairs and since most of his fellow rebels are pardoned, are not at all comparable to the hazard of an acquittal, that will attend an attempt to try him The better way would be to let him go at liberty with his traitor associates. One more added to the number can do no great harm

It is quite interesting to observe the extraordinary sollicitude which some of the Victoria people are manifesting in regard to political matters in Washington Territory. The Colonist newspaper is especially interested, and, as may be readily guessed, favors Clark, the Democratic nominee and agent of the Hudson's Bay Company That paper is quite sure that Clark will be elected, but not so sure as to relieve it of the obligation of very frequently putting in a word in his behalf This manifest anxiety on the part of our British neighbors to see Clark elected is quite significant Wouldn't the voters of Washington Territory do well to inquire about the reason of this unusual solicitude?

A CHALLENGE TO THE CLERGY!
To the Clergymen of the Pacific Coast.
REV GENTLEMEN —I hereby extend a challenge to any one of you whom your religious organization will endorse as being capable of defending your articles of faith to meet me in this city in oral discussion on the following questions
1. Do the spirits of the departed possess power to return and communicate intelligently with their friends in the earth life?
I taking the affirmative; you the negative Discuss two days.
2 Are the teachings of Spiritualism immoral in their tendencies, as compared with the teachings of the Bible and Christianity?
You to take the affirmative and I the negative Discuss two days An early reply is desired

PIONEER WASHER.
JAMES BRUSIE,
AGENT FOR OREGON AND WASHINGTON TERRITORY
THIS CELEBRATED WASHING MACHINE IS now for the first time introduced to the Oregon public It is unrivalled for its simplicity durability and the rapidity and ease of its action Washing the dirtiest clothes perfectly clean in from five to ten minutes, with but slight labor and lasting with proper care, for ten years The wear and tear of clothing in washing by this machine is vastly less than by any other known process of washing It is easily worked by one person
This Machine captured the Special Premium at the California State Fair, and all that have used it pronounce it an invaluable adjunct to aid housekeepers and families and washing men and washing women
It has been extensively introduced throughout the State of California, and receives the universal commendation of all who have used it
The undersigned is now in the city of Portland where he can be seen at Mr O. Kilbourn s Store, corner of Front and Yamhill Sts East side, Portland, and is prepared to furnish the Machine to purchasers and also to sell and dispose of County Rights for the sale of the same
PORTLAND May 8th 1867

LOUIS A CARNETT ... ... President and Manager
JOHN HEWSTON Jr ... Chemist and Superintendent

THIS COMPANY HAVING GREATLY enlarged their Refining Works, and introduced many other important improvements, are pleased to announce that they feel warranted in again reducing materially their terms of doing business.

THE TARIFF OF CHARGES

Which they now submit to the public—considered with reference to the cost of material and labor—is lower than in any other part of the world, and secured to the mining interest of this coast an important increase in both the minting and commercial value of bullion.
Their charges hereafter will be as follows:

FOR ASSAYING DEPOSITS FOR UNPARTED GOLD BARS.
One eighth of one per cent (heretofore a quarter) for all amounts over $1,000, and two dollars for any smaller amount Returns made in twenty-four hours

FOR ASSAYING DEPOSITS FOR UNPARTED SILVER BARS.
Two dollars for the gold contained, up to $1,600, and one-eighth of one per cent, for all amounts over that sum, and one per cent on the silver contained Returns made in twenty four hours

FOR REFINING DEPOSITS MADE FOR COIN OR FINE BARS.
On bullion under 300 parts gold, 2 cents per ounce
On bullion from 300½@600 parts gold, 4 cents per ounce
On bullion from 600½@750 parts gold, 6 cents per ounce
On bullion from 750½@949½ parts gold, 8 cents per ounce
Above 950 the only charge will be for coinage But there will be no charge for refining less than two dollars.

FOR COINING GOLD
This charge will be the same as at the Mint—a half of one per cent —and which is paid by us to the institution But there will be no charge in future for making fine gold or silver bars from bullion refined by us

RETURNS IN COIN IN FORTY EIGHT HOURS
Silver contained in deposits for coin will be accounted for at the same rate customary at the Mint
Gold bars of other Assayers, in good standing, will be cashed by us at the highest market rates.
Dust and bullion can be forwarded to us from any part of the country, and returns made through Wells, Fargo & Co's Express

CHARGES AT U S BRANCH MINT
For the convenience of those not familiar with the terms of the Mint, we subjoin the tariff of charges now in force at that institution
For refining bullion under 300 parts gold, 3 cents per ounce
For refining bullion from 300½@600 parts gold, 5 cents per ounce
For refining bullion from 600½@750 parts gold, 7 cents per ounce
For refining bullion from 750½@830 parts gold, 11 cents per ounce
For refining bullion from 830½@940½ parts gold, 14 cents per ounce
The charge for coinage is half of one per cent, and the charge for making fine silver bars, the same
Comparing the net value of deposits for coinage, with the proceeds of unparted gold bars sold in the market—assuming that the bars have a cost ½ of one per cent —they must be sold at the following par rates to equal the return which would have been made had they been deposited for coinage:
830 par to equal Mint return, at refining charge of 14 cents
846 par to equal Mint return at refining charge of 14 cents
865 par to equal San Francisco A & R. Works return, at refining charge of 6 cents mh1d3p3m

ATTEMPT AT BURGLARY.—Yesterday morning Mr. A. B. Richardson, upon entering his auction store, found that a hole had been made through the wall by the side of the door, near the rear end, by prying out the bricks with a crow-bar or some similar instrument. The evident intention of the operator was to effect an entrance for purposes of plunder; but the design seems to have come to an abrupt termination before the burglar accomplished what he intended, as nothing appears to have been disturbed and nothing is missing. It is presumed that some noise or some person passing, interrupted the work of the would-be burglar and caused a retreat from the premises. It is not certain whether the job was done during Saturday night or Sunday night, though the police officers are under the impression that it was done Saturday night, and that the operators approached the place by small boat and left by the same way. It is but a few steps from the door to the water's edge. The hole effected is large enough to allow the passage of a small man, but there were evident efforts to increase its size by prying out more bricks. The next time the fellows want goods (if that was what they were after) Mr. Richardson would be glad to have them call in the day time, when he is in; and he thinks he can sell them better bargains than they can steal.

HEAVY FINE.—Elizabeth Lee and Mary Claydad were, yesterday, fined $100 each for disorderly conduct. Some parties express the opinion that this action of the Recorder was severe, not to say harsh. Our impression is that the Recorder did exactly what his duty as a conservator of the peace, demanded of him. The locality where the defendants reside has long been notorious for its disorder and for the frequency with which its denizens have been before the police courts. The vile conversations with which they have been wont to regale themselves, and passers by at almost all hours of the day and night, have made the neighborhood to be dreaded by all decent people whose business might call them to pass along that street. It has become a standing daily nuisance. The ease with which offenders in that locality have eluded just punishment, on several occasions, through jury trials, seems but to have increased the evil and to have given it a sort of judicial license. Every lover of order, quiet and decency, will be glad to learn that the Recorder is determined, when his decision is allowed to determine upon these offenses, to punish them severely enough to prevent their repetition.

EGG, EXTRAORDINARY.—Mr. Frank Dekum has the shell of a hen's egg of very large dimensions, which is something of a curiosity as to its interior economy. The egg when broken was found to contain a perfect yolk, and, in addition, a perfect egg, of small size, with a shell like an ordinary hen's egg containing the usual white and yolk. There was nothing about the outer egg, unlike other eggs, except its very great size, measuring about nine inches longitudinally and six inches in its smaller circumference. The hen which perpetrated this lusus naturæ, seems to be a very eccentric creature, as she next day laid another egg measuring seven inches longitudinally, and then finished off with a diminutive specimen scarcely larger than a wren's egg. We are glad to be able to state, that the old hen, notwithstanding her eggstraordinary efforts, is doing as well as could be expected.

MUSICAL CONCERT.—A vocal and instrumental concert will be given at Oro Fino Hall on Monday evening, the 20th, a complimentary benefit to Miss Soledad Tanner. Profs. Gans, Sedlak and Yost, Messrs Raymond and Byrne, Miss Soledad and other talent will appear. Nearly, if not quite all the performers, have volunteered their services. Professor Gans has a very high reputation as an accomplished pianist, as has, also, Prof. Yost. The others are more or less known here and need no commendation. Miss Soledad will sing some of her sweetest pieces, and the pianists, violinists and banjoists are on the programme for choice and popular selections from the first musical authors. The concert will be first class in all its details and adapted to the purest musical tastes of the public.

MATCH GAME OF CHESS.—A match game of chess is in progress in this city, between the Portland Library Association and the Germania Society, Mr. Russell chief player for the former, and Mr. Blumenthal for the latter. Last evening was the third sitting at the first game and at ten o'clock the thirty-eighth move was made by Mr. Russell. Thus far there appears but little substantial advantage on either side. Mr. Russell had remaining on the board his queen, two castles and five pawns; Mr. Blumenthal had his queen, one castle, one bishop, one rook and four pawns. The game is exciting great interest among the members of the two societies, and many of them sit as spectators in their respective rooms throughout the hours of playing. The match, as we understand, is to be decided in favor of the party which first wins five games.

MAN DROWNED.—A deck hand, named Fred. Munson, on the steamer Okanagon, hence to Astoria yesterday morning, fell overboard, shortly after leaving the city, and was drowned. The following note, sent back by Purser Hoyt, by the steamer Rescue, contains all the information we have concerning the sad accident: "We lost a deck hand overboard this morning, between the bone yard and Swan Island. Please hand the enclosed note to some of the newspaper reporters. He was at work lashing the boat upon the port guard, about 6½ o'clock, when he fell. The steamer was stopped immediately and a boat sent to him, but he sunk when the boat was within about twenty feet of him. Any friends may inquire at Phillips Brewery." The deceased was about thirty years old.

PASSENGERS FOR PORTLAND.—The following is the passenger list of the steamer Idaho, which sailed from San Francisco for this port on Saturday: O Duncan and wife, R Saux, Wm Martin and wife, R Barnett, Rev S W Craycroft, E N Thomas, J H Cox and wife, A Waldo, J H Waldo, Mrs Jos Cox, Mrs May, Mrs March, O H Abby, J Fish, Mrs Starr and infant, Miss M Rector, Mrs Bellus, L May, M O'Conner, Garrison, Mr A King and wife, H G Leonard, W H Hanchett and wife, Mrs E Johnson, Mrs West and two children, Mrs Houghton, Mrs Munford, H Houghton. Steerage—Wm Keys, wife and two children, Miss McLaughlin, Jno Mitchell and wife, M Cavanaugh and wife, Sarah Crawley, J M Phillippe, Mrs Pascall, Mr Antonio, and three Chinamen.

FROM THE WRECK.—Captain Flanders, who went down to the scene of the wreck of the bark Scranton and returned Saturday night, informs us that the vessel broke in two in about twenty-four hours after striking, and all her decks broke from the hull and washed away. A portion of the hull containing iron, washed up so far as to be accessible at half tide, and the iron can be got out. Two or three threshers, some farming tools and casks of liquors have been picked up along the beach. He is under the impression that the cost of saving such goods as may come ashore will be equal to their value in their damaged condition, and that nothing much can, therefore, be saved from the wreck.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT—DEADY, JUSTICE.—On Monday, the 13th, the following proceedings were had: U. S. vs. Woodsen Stemmens; indictment for violation of internal revenue law; jury trial; verdict "guilty;" defendant fined $5 and costs.
F. X. Matthieu, petit juror, excused.
Henry Wagner, a defaulting witness brought in on attachment; given until Wednesday morning to answer.
U. S. vs. D. Farg-Aly; action at law to recover penalty; set for trial Tuesday morning.
John Catlin, admitted to the bar.
S. Clark, Horace Baker and A. Young, petit jurors, excused.

CIRCUIT COURT—SHATTUCK, JUDGE.—Monday, May 13th: W. W. Chapman vs. W. H. Delay; suit dismissed without prejudice, on motion of plaintiff, at plaintiff's costs.
State of Oregon vs. Chas. Starr; bail reduced to $600.
Judgments were entered by default, for want of answer in the following cases:
Emstein, Bros. & Co. vs. F. DeWitt, for $865. Tobin, Dixon & Davidson vs F. DeWitt, $323 65 coin. Murphy, Grant & Co. vs. F. Dewitt, for $873 12 coin.
Rosenbaum & Co., et al, vs. H. Martin & Co., et al, set for hearing this morning at 9 o'clock.

PIG IRON.—The Fideliter which arrived yesterday morning, brought 37½ tons of pig iron, made at the Glencannock works, Scotland. It was very near the whole stock on hand at Victoria. The News, mentioning this shipment, says: "In a short time we shall probably hear of the same iron being reimported, in a manufactured state." Shouldn't wonder. Portland is doing something in that line. In a short time, the Johnnies may also see, in Victoria, Oregon iron in a manufactured state. Oswego will soon be doing the pigs and Portland will do the rest.

FOR THE FLOWERY KINGDOM.—A Chinawoman at Oregon City, having gone a day or two since, to "kingdom come," her body was sent down by the Senator, yesterday, to be transported in due time to the Flowery Kingdom whence she came. It is a habit with the Chinamen of this coast to send the bones of their deceased friends back to their native land for final interment, none but the outlawed being excepted. The freights of vessels sailing from San Francisco to Chinese ports, frequently consist in great part, of the bones of Chinese men and women.

RECORDER'S COURT.—In the Recorder's Court yesterday the following cases were disposed of: Walton, charged with an assault and battery upon his wife; charge withdrawn; costs paid by defendant.
Elizabeth Lee, disorderly conduct on Second street, abusing and calling by opprobrious names, Mary Claydad—both belonging to the frail sisterhood. The defendant was fined $100—the full extent of the law.
Mary Claydad was tried on a similar charge and was fined in the same sum.

SODA.—The proprietors of the Excelsior Soda Works announce a reduction in the price of soda water, to twenty-five cents per dozen. The thirsty sufferers by the late hot weather will hail this announcement with delight. Soda is almost as cheap as water and even impecunious editors may indulge in the delightfully cooling beverage—provided they can occasionally borrow a quarter of a dollar. That's what's the matter.

EAST PORTLAND DEBATING CLUB.—This club will have a regular meeting this evening, at which the following subject will be discussed: "Resolved, That man is indebted more to education for his ability than to innate powers." The public is invited to attend. We are informed that many of these discussions are very interesting.

WILLAMETTE FREIGHTS.—Arrived per steamer Senator, from Oregon City, Monday, May 13th: 95 gunnies bacon, 3 hf bbls produce, 10 boxes do., 611 qr sks flour, 10 bales wool, 1 bale woolen goods, 4 bales bacon gunnies, 137 bags feed, 2 cases lard, 54 sks flour, 24 boxes eggs, 303 bags wheat.

MAIN STREET.—Parties were at work, yesterday, cleaning and grading Main street, between First and Second. The whole street, from Front to the Plaza needs this sort of improvement.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE.—At the auction sale by Mr. Kilbourn, yesterday, five acres of the Blackstone land claim brought $350, or $70 per acre.

SALE OF HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE.—Mr. A. B. Richardson auctioneer, will sell to-day at 10 o'clock A. M., at the residence of Rt. Rev. Bishop Scott, a lot of household furniture, new and in good condition. Among other articles, are a piano and a melodeon. Housekeepers will take notice.

UMPIRE ELECTED.—At a special meeting of the Pioneer Base Ball Club, held at their room last evening, Mr. Ed. Barkemsios was elected Umpire for the ensuing season. The regular practice days of the club are Mondays and Thursdays of each week, at five o'clock P. M.

ODD FELLOWS' SUPPER.—Mr. Quimby, of the American Exchange, is making preparations for a supper to the members and officers of the Grand Lodge I. O. O. F., which will hold its annual session this week. The supper, we believe, is to take place Friday evening.

COMPLAINTS.—Two complaints, one for assault and battery and one for larceny were yesterday afternoon, lodged in the Recorder's Court, and the parties will be up this morning.

THE W. B. SCRANTON.—Barman Bros. were not losers by the wreck of the Scranton, and can therefore sell clothing and furnishing goods as cheap as ever. Besides their large and select stock in Portland, they are now establishing the largest clothing house in Salem ever opened in that place. At either house customers can be satisfied with both goods and prices.

THE RUSH FOR THE FAMILY DYE COLORS of Howe & Stevens is as great as ever. Once introduced to a family or neighborhood, and they spread like wildfire. The truth is, they are so nice to have about the house that every prudent and sensible matron will have them. Howe & Stevens employ some one hundred hands to keep up to orders. Sold by Smith & Davis.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.—From and after this day the well-known FRENCH LAFAYETTE RESTAURANT will serve a first-class table at the reduced price of Seven Dollars per week.

AN ANTIDOTE FOR POISON.
THE PAIN KILLER.—Rev. T. Allen, writing from Tavoy, Burmah, says: "Within the past four years I have used and disposed of about five hundred bottles; but am now out. Please send me a fresh supply as soon as you can—say two hundred bottles. I dare not be without it myself, and there are endless calls for it, both by Burmans and Karens. I always take it with me into the jungles, and have frequent occasion to use it, both on myself and others. One night, while sleeping in an open Zayate, I was awoke by a most excruciating pain in my foot. On examination, I found I had been bitten by a centipede. I immediately applied the Pain Killer, and found instant relief. In less than an hour I was again asleep."
Rev. Mr. Hibbard, writing from Burmah to his father, says: "I have used Davis' Pain Killer for coughs, colds, summer complaints, burns, and for the sting of scorpions, with uniform success. We always keep it where we can lay our hands on it in the dark, if need be." ap20dtc

DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS
They purify, strengthen and invigorate.
They create a healthy appetite.
They are an antidote to change of water and diet.
They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours.
They strengthen the system and enliven the mind.
They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers.
They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach.
They cure Dyspepsia and Constipation.
They cure Diarrhea, Cholera and Cholera-Morbus.
They cure Liver Complaint and Nervous Headache.
They are the best Bitters in the world. They make the weak strong, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are made of pure St. Croix Rum, the celebrated Calisaya Bark, roots and herbs, and are taken with the pleasure of a beverage, without regard to age or time of day. Particularly recommended to delicate persons requiring a gentle stimulant. Sold by all Grocers, Druggists, Hotels and Saloons. Only genuine when Cork is covered by our private U. S. Stamp. Beware of counterfeits and refilled bottles.

Barnes' Magnolia Water.
A toilet delight! The ladies' treasure and gentlemen's boon! The "sweetest thing" and largest quantity. Manufactured from the rich Southern Magnolia. Used for bathing the face and person, to render the skin soft and fresh, to prevent eruptions, to perfume clothing, &c.
It overcomes the unpleasant odor of perspiration.
It removes redness, tan, blotches, &c.
It cures nervous headache and allays inflammation.
It cools, softens and adds delicacy to the skin.
It yields a subdued and lasting perfume.
It cures musquito bites and stings of insects.
It contains no material injurious to the skin.
It is what every lady should have. Sold everywhere. Try the Magnolia Water once, and you will use no other Cologne, Perfumery, or Toilet Water afterwards.
DEMAS BARNES & CO.
Props. Exclusive Agents, New York.
Sold by all Dealers on the Pacific Coast.

Mustang Liniment.
Intrinsic virtue alone could ever insure the success met by the Mexican Mustang Liniment. For Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Cuts, Bruises, Burns, Swellings, etc., upon man, or Spavin, Ringbone, Poll Evil, Scratches, Strains, etc., upon beasts, its effects are instantaneous, soothing and wonderful. It saves time, suffering and expense to have it always in the house. None genuine unless in a steel plate label, with signature of G. W. Westbrook, and having stamp of DEMAS BARNES & Co. over the top.
Sold by all Dealers.

Lyon's Kathairon.
Lyon's Kathairon is a most delightful article as a Hair Dressing—to eradicate scurf and dandruff, to keep it clean, soft, and silky, and the head cool. It also prevents the hair from falling off and turning gray, and promotes its growth upon prematurely bald heads. It is sold by all dealers. E. THOMAS LYON, N. Y.

Lyon's Extract Jamaica Ginger.
LYON'S EXTRACT OF PURE JAMAICA GINGER—for Indigestion, Nausea, Heartburn, Sick Headache, Cholera Morbus, Flatulency, etc., where a warming stimulant is required. Its careful preparation and entire purity make it a cheap and reliable article for culinary purposes. Sold everywhere, at 50 cts. per bottle. Ask for "Lyon's" Pure Extract. Take no other.
CAUTION.—See that the private U. S. stamp of DEMAS BARNES & Co. is over each bottle. None other is genuine.

Lyon's Flea Powder.
DEATH TO FLEAS.—It is well known that Lyon's genuine Magnetic Powder will perfectly destroy everything in the shape of fleas, ticks, bed-bugs, roaches, etc.; that it is perfect poison to the insect tribe, but entirely harmless to the human species and domestic animals. The genuine has the signature of E. LYON, and the private stamp of DEMAS BARNES & Co. Anything else of this kind is an imitation or counterfeit. Any druggist will procure the genuine if you insist you will have no other.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS. 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.
HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.
The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.
BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.
Each package bears the signature of G. VENARD.

Also, General Agent for
BROWN'S ENGLISH ROOFING PAINT.
This Pure Black Paint is superior to all other Black Roofing Cements, Mastics and Patent Roofings now in use; and for the last ten years, the genuine has been used in twenty-four States of the Union, and is now a fixed institution for the following purposes:
The Painting of Tin, Sheet-Iron, Copper or Zinc Roofs, Galvanized Iron Bridges, Locomotive and Steamboat Smoke Pipes, and all Iron Work requiring a perfect pure glossy black, exposed to the weather and fire.
It has been in general use in England for the last ten years, for the protection of Vessels' Bottoms from the water and the worm, for which it is particularly adapted.
Old Leaky Shingle or Tin Roofs can be made perfectly tight, and as good as new, with two coats of this Paint.

MATRIMONIAL INFELICITIES.—A Chicago letter records some of the matrimonial infelicities and remedies of that great city, as follows:

There is evidently great matrimonial demoralization in this city at this time. Applications for divorces are of daily, almost of hourly occurrence. Some of the grounds for divorces are novel, if not amusing. One of our leading city clergymen, in his pulpit, in commenting on this alarming matrimonial demoralization, related a case that came under his own observation.

During the past week a lady, hitherto regarded as highly respectable, came to him and wished to consult him as her pastor, in relation to getting a divorce from her husband. The clergyman greatly astonished, asked for what cause she sought a divorce. She replied that her husband when she was married to him, was quite wealthy, but had lately become so reduced in circumstances as to be unable to supply her with the luxuries to which she had been accustomed and this was the whole ground for seeking a divorce from her husband. The clergyman dismissed her with a sharp admonition.

Another lady went to a lawyer and sought his advice as to the quickest way of getting divorce from her husband. When asked for a cause, she replied that her husband was so cross she could not tolerate him. She acknowledged he never showed any signs of violence toward her, and that he supplied her with every necessary.

Another quite well known lady, sometime since sought by letter protection of a well known bank or because her husband was not able to gratify her fashionable tastes.

But the strangest case transpired recently. The wife of a well known lake captain sought a divorce upon the ground of uncongeniality. An investigation developed the fact that the lady had never been married to the gay captain, and that he had another and lawful wife living. Of course the lady got the divorce without difficulty, but failed to get what she most sought—alimony.

GREELEY ON MORMONISM.—Horace Greeley, in a lecture recently delivered in New York, upon the mormons, among other things is reported to have said:

I have even met, among the Bishops, several not over happy in their marital relations—one, who had among his wives two of his nieces; another, whose two wives (he was very modest) never spoke to each other on any occasion, which made the house rather awkward to visitors. Only imagine to yourself, said the lecturer, a family of twelve children, with four or five mothers to bring them up in one house, and you have as fair a start for hell upon earth as you can well imagine. Ten years in such a purgatory would make a man long for the sound of Gabriel's trumpet.

That is all nonsense, and we are surprised that Horace was forced to resort to so poor an argument against Mormonism—an argument refuted by the facts. No doubt, Mormon women are unhappy enough, but as for the men, if they don't revel in paradisaical bliss, the saintesses must be an uncommonly homely lot. We confess that it is very wicked to have more than one wife, but it is certainly deuced pleasant, for men all the world over, take to polygamy, when not restrained by law, as readily as politicians do to lying. As for Brigham Young, who is estimated to have spent four solid years of honeymoon, he evidently has no longing to hear the sound of Gabriel's trumpet, so long as there are any handsome girls left unmated in the world, and his bishops, too, wax sleek and oily upon much matrimony. For ourself, we are free to confess, that if the entire ballet of the Black Rook were offered to us in marriage, nothing but our high moral principle and regard for the interests of society would prevent us from accepting and taking the purgatorial chances. If Horace Greeley, or any other man, wishes to make a point against polygamy, let him admit what is patent to every one, that the institution has undoubted fascination for men, and base his objection to it on the ground of its cruelty and injustice to women, and its prejudice to the interests of society. The silly argument against slavery, that it was an injury rather than a benefit to the slaveholders, had no effect whatever upon that peculiar institution, unless to strengthen it.—S. F. Dramatic Chronicle.

Some days ago there was a party given for the benefit of the Fenians, on the outskirts of town, and several of the ladies present had little babies, whose noisy perversity required too much attention to allow their ma's to enjoy the "hop." A number of gallant young men volunteered to guard the infantry while the ladies engaged in the "break down." No sooner had the mothers left their cherubs with the mischievous wretches, than they stripped the darlings, changed their clothes, giving the apparel of one to another. The dance over, the mothers each took as she thought her own baby, and hurriedly left the scenes of gayety, and started to their homes, several miles apart, being far on their way before the "peep o' day." The following day there was a tremendous row in the settlement. Mothers discovered that a single night had changed the sex of their babies—and then commenced some of the tallest pedestrianism. Living six miles apart, it required two days to unmix the little cherubs, and will require as many weeks to restore the mothers to their natural sweet dispositions.

Hurd and Houghton are about to publish a work which must attract wide notice in political circles and among all classes of the people—being an elaborate review of the origin and course of political parties in the United States, written by the late ex-President Martin Van Buren, during his retirement at Lindenwald, and completed only a short time before his death. The work in question was produced as an episode to Mr. Van Buren's autobiographical memoirs. The memoirs, we understand, were left in an unfinished and unrevised state, breaking off a little before the commencement of Mr. Van Buren's administration as President. If published in full they would be voluminous, and after all only a fragment. The episode on parties was found, separately considered, to be more complete and to require little revision. Under these circumstances, the sons of Mr Van Buren, to whom his papers were left, have decided to publish the latter by itself, and to place the memoirs, as well as the other miscellaneous papers left by Mr. Van Buren, in the hands of Charles H. Hunt, esq., who is engaged on an elaborate biography of the ex-President.

A modest young gentleman from the country, while passing along one of our streets the other [illegible] ladies to him perfect strangers. He [illegible] favored some handsome and [illegible] of them, for as soon as they laid eyes on him they gave him a very cordial greeting, expressed themselves so very glad to see "cousin John," and extended two pairs of very tempting lips in token of their sincerity. It was not until the kisses had been given and received that the fair ones discovered their mistake, though the gentleman in question saw it from the beginning, yet he was so overcome by the unexpected fortune that it was some time before he recovered his presence of mind. It's an ill wind that blows good to nobody, what "cousin John" missed in this instance somebody else got.

WOULDN'T IT.—Wouldn't it be as well for Democratic editors, while appealing to the charitable people of the North, to use some judgment in making up their papers. They often get things slightly mixed. For instance, an article headed "Charity," in which the editor calls on everybody, irrespective of party, to give something toward the relief of the suffering South, finds a place by the side of one running thus: "The puritanical, hymn-singing, nigger worshiping, spoon-stealing, Bible-snatching, pulpit-whanging, kinky-headed Abolitionists," etc. Now, a person after reading the first article, would feel like donating something, but after reading the second, he would be very apt to say, "Let them starve until the lovers of Booth, Wirtz, Mrs. Surratt, Jeff. Davis, and a host of other cut-throats, learn a little decency, if such a thing be possible."

GEORGIA.—A letter to a New Orleans paper from Augusta, Georgia, says that enterprise is as dead in that State as if the country were a desert. There is a sickly trade in the necessaries of life, in which purchasers buy by the ounce or pound, and sellers require to see the greenbacks before they deliver the goods. The happy few who have a little money hold on to it, and heedless of all the tempting offers of three, four, five and even six per cent a month, with all sorts of collaterals, prefer to keep it.

QUEER IDEA.—The New York Sunday Mercury devotes an entire page to a description of the valuable dogs owned in New York with the names of the owners. This is the paper that some time ago, created such a flutter in shoddydom by giving a list of precious stones owned by various wealthy people, and their values. The article had the effect of making the possessors of diamonds objects of attention to all the pickpockets in the city, and very few diamonds were worn in public for some time after.

A "linen wedding" is the newest nuisance of married life. Such took place on the twentieth anniversary of the marriage of a couple at Rome, N. Y., on the 29th ult., and presents of linen of all descriptions were plentiful.

Speaker Colfax said at the last Congressional temperance meeting, that he resolved to lead a temperance life after seeing a companion die of delirium tremens thirty years ago.

A DEAD HAND.—One of our Eastern exchanges contained, a short time ago, the details of a singular case of paralysis or something similar. It seems that a young man, by way of exhibiting his muscular power, struck his fist through a heavy panneled door, and from that time forward the hand has been numb. The account says:

"In a few weeks the hand began to wither and the fingers to shrink up and now they present a curious appearance. The hand is wholly useless and of a dead looking gray color as if no blood circulated in it, and has shrunk to nearly one half the size of the other hand. The nails are black but still retain their hold upon the flesh. They have not grown any since the blow was given. Upon cutting the hand a little blood will stand in the wound, but it does not bleed like a fresh cut. There is no sign of mortification in the hand. The dead feeling reaches only a few inches up the arm. Wilder has no power over the hand and cannot close it. The bones of the fingers seem to have shrunk with the flesh, and have softened to a substance resembling gristle. Several surgeons have examined the hand and declare they never saw or heard of a similar case."

We remember, says the Scientific American, a circumstance somewhat analogous to this, which occured some thirty years ago. A number of boys had been annoying a neighbor by throwing stones against his door. He rushed out and dealt one of them a blow on the arm, between the elbow and wrist. The blow slightly discolored the skin but from that night, the arm was useless and assumed the appearance of a dead limb. We knew the young man for more than ten years after the occurrence, but no change ever took place in the condition of his arm. It remained in size a boy's arm and in appearance and feeling, dead.

A GAME OF EUCHRE.—Several years ago a young man arrived in California from one of the down eastern ports, and not being able to find employment in San Francisco suited to his peculiar taste, was consequently a long time idle, and being of a festive disposition, at length found himself reduced to his last five dollar coin. He then proceeded to Stockton (to a certain institution at which place he should have been forwarded some time before, free of expense) and being still unsuccessful in his search for work, concluded to solace himself with a few glasses of whisky, which he obtained by selling a piece of clothing. He became noisy, was arrested for drunkenness, and sentenced to the county jail. In the same cell with him was a man under sentence of death for murder, and from whom he learned the mysteries of the game of euchre—in fact, learned so well as to be able finally to beat his teacher in every game. On Wednesday last, after various ups and downs for so many years, he walked into this city to look for news from home. He had traveled all the way from Virginia City on foot to see a friend who had offered him the means with which to pay his passage home. He received the money—$150—met a talkative individual at the —— hotel, accompanied him to a vacant building on the levee, and indulged in what his friend called a "nice little game of euchre." This morning the foolish young man started on foot for Sacramento, with out as much as a ten cent piece in his pocket, and without his coat, which he had staked as a last resort.—Marysville Californian.

EVERY DAY RELIGION.—We must come back to our point, which is not to urge all of you to give yourselves up to mission work, but to serve God more and more in connection with your daily calling. I have heard that a woman who has a mission makes a poor wife and a bad mother; this is very possible, and at the same time very lamentable; but the mission I would urge is out of this sort. Dirty rooms, slatternly gowns and children with unwashed faces are swift witnesses against the sincerity of those who keep others' vineyards and neglect their own. I have no faith in that woman who talks of grace and glory abroad and uses no soap and water at home. Let the buttons be on the shirts, let the children's socks be mended, let the roast mutton be done to a turn, let the house be as neat as a new pin, and the home be happy as home can be, and, then, when the cannon balls, and the marbles, and the shots, and even the grains of sand, are all in the box, even then there will be room for those little deeds of love and faith which in my Master's name I seek of you who look for his appearing. Serve God by doing common actions in a heavenly spirit, and then, if your daily calling only leaves you cracks and crevices of time, fill these up with holy service. To use the Apostle's words, "As we have opportunity, let us do good unto all men."—Spurgeon.

THE NEW YORK "HERALD'S" NEW ESTABLISHMENT—HOW IT WILL OPEN.—Some curiosity having been manifested regarding the method by which the Herald will take possession of its new building now rapidly approaching completion, and one anxious individual (according to the Herald) having addressed an inquiry as to whether it would be opened with ceremonies, that paper sets the matter at rest by informing all interested that, "the ceremonies will consist of a large number of intelligent gentlemen walking into the building between nine and ten o'clock in the morning, taking their seats in different rooms at different desks, and proceeding with their duties. About the same hour a crowd of persons will enter the spacious office on the ground floor, through the grand front on Broadway, and filing into line, will proceed to hand in their advertisements for the next morning's paper, paying their money for the same and receiving back their change," etc. The inquirer is probably satisfied, having "received his change." But the best of the joke is that all who know the Herald's mean and parsimonious habits in matters relating to its internal management, and affairs, recognize in the sarcasm the characteristic penuriousness of the Bennetts. The Herald pays its employees less and exacts harder service from them than any of the New York dailies—at least it has this reputation among the newspaper men.

HAD DONE ENOUGH.—A Revolutionary soldier was running for Congress, and his opponent was a young man who had "never been to the wars," and it was the custom of the old Revolutionary to tell of the hardships he had endured. Said he: "Fellow citizens, I have fought and bled for my country. I helped to whip the British and the Indians. I have slept on the field of battle with no other covering than the canopy of Heaven! I have walked over the frozen ground till every footstep was marked with blood—" Just about this time one of the sovereigns, who had become greatly interested in his tale of suffering walked up in front of the speaker, wiped his eyes with the extremity of his coat tail, and interrupted him with "Did you say you had fout the British and the Injins?" "Yes, sir." "Did you say you had slept on the ground while serving your country, without any kiver?" "I did." "Did you say your feet covered the ground you walked over with blood?" "Yes," replied the speaker exultingly. "Well, then," said the tearful sovereign, as he gave a sigh of tender emotion, "I guess I'll vote for 'ther feller, for I'll be blamed if you ain't done enough for your country."

THE CONDITION OF CHARLESTON.—A correspondent at Charleston, South Carolina, says the burnt districts in that city are still a gloomy spectacle, as the inhabitants have made scarcely any effort to rebuild the district burnt over by the great fire of 1861, or the section set on fire by the rebels when they evacuated the city. The writer adds:

The most of the money spent on labor and buildings since the war, has been applied to repairing the holes made by Federal shot and shells. It will be found interesting to consult, in an old file in the Mercury, the official statement of General Beauregard, that it would be physically impossible for the Yankees to bombard the city from any position they held, and then pass along the streets, in the southern half, and mark the traces of the "swamp angel." I think a person might count hundreds of places where irregular holes, from two to five feet in diameter, have been repaired in the walls of the houses. It may be a gala day in Charleston when her citizens shall become able to paint their houses, and thus obliterate these evidences of her peril.

EXTRAORDINARY SUICIDE.—An extraordinary act of self destruction has just been committed in Milan. A young man named Maurizio, aged twenty three, in the employment of a baker, entered the heated oven after having fastened the handle of the door to his arm with a string, in order to close it after him. The master some time after arrived, and being immediately affected by a nauseous smell, and not finding the young man, thought of opening the door, and there discovered the body. The deceased bore a good character, but lately had taken to drinking.

The Czar of all the Russias is about to introduce the Georgian calendar into his empire. Russia is the only civilized country that still clings to the antiquated Julian system, and Alexander, who is a man of progressive ideas, desires to get rid of this inconvenient and absurd relic of barbarism. The proposed reform is, however, strenuously opposed by the Russian clergy, on the ground that its adoption would be a virtual recognition of Papal authority. It is not likely that Alexander will permit this ridiculous objection to deter him from his purpose.

ARMY SUPPLIES.

CAVALRY HORSES.

PACK AND WAGON MULES.

Assistant Quartermaster's Office, 742 Washington St., San Francisco, Cal., April 30th, 1867.

SEALED PROPOSALS IN DUPLICATE WILL BE received by the undersigned, at this office, until twelve o'clock, SATURDAY, May 18 1867, for the delivery at Camp C F Smith, Oregon, of four hundred and fifty (450) Cavalry Horses. The same to be good, sound, serviceable horses, well broke to the saddle, without defect or blemish—not less than fourteen and one half (14½) nor over sixteen hands high, and not less than five nor more than nine years of age, in good condition, ready for immediate service.

Half breed or California horses that come up to the above standard of height, and comply with the foregoing specifications in other respects, will be accepted. The horses subject to inspection at the place of delivery.

Also, for delivery at same place, of one hundred and eighty (180) Pack Mules. The same to be good sound, serviceable mules, not less than twelve and one half (12½) hands high, to be over two (2) years of age, strong, stout, compact, well developed animals, in full health, free from any defect or blemish which would unfit them for severe work, and must have shed the four front colts' teeth, and developed the corresponding four permanent teeth, two in each jaw; must be in good condition, fit for immediate service, and capable of packing 250 pounds weight over mountain roads.

The mules subject to inspection at the place of delivery.

Also, for delivery at same place, of forty (40) Team mules for wagon trains. The same to be good, sound, serviceable mules, not less than fourteen (14) hands high, to be over two (2) years of age, strong, stout, compact, well developed animals, in full health, free from any blemish or defect which would unfit them for severe work, and must have shed the four front colt's teeth, and developed the corresponding four permanent teeth, two in each jaw; must be in good condition, fit for immediate service.

The mules subject to inspection at the place of delivery.

All of the above animals to be furnished as soon as they can be delivered, between the time this contract is awarded and the first of July, 1867.

Prices must be written, as well as expressed, in figures.

The oath of allegiance to the United States Government must accompany the proposals, unless already filed in this office.

Bidders will state their prices in United States coin, or its equivalent in Government currency, at the market rates on the day of payment. Payment to be made on the delivery of the animals, in such funds as furnished by the Government, if on hand—if not on hand, to be made as soon as received.

A copy of this advertisement must be attached to each bid.

The right to reject any and all bids, and to accept the whole or any portion of the number of animals named in any bid, is reserved.

Blank forms for proposals will be furnished at this office. All proposals must be made on the forms furnished at this office.

Proposals will be received for the whole or for a part of the number required.

Each bidder will be required, before the time fixed for the opening of the bids, to file in this office a bond with sufficient sureties in a penalty of five thousand dollars, conditioned that if his bid is accepted, he will execute a written agreement for the performance of his contract and give such further bonds for the performance of his written agreement as may be required.

Bids that do not comply with the above requirements will not be entertained.

The expense of this advertisement will be divided among the successful bidders, pro rata.

LEFFEL'S AMERICAN DOUBLE TURBINE

THESE WHEELS, unequaled and unrivaled in the United States or the world, have been fully tested on this coast, more than forty being in use at this date, driving all kinds of machinery, Saw Mills, Flour Mills, Quartz Mills, Woolen Factories, &c., &c.

On account of the extraordinary demand, our stock of wheels is considerably reduced, and we are entirely out of several sizes, therefore parties contemplating using our wheel, to be certain of securing them in time, should give their order at least three months before they expect to get them, that we may be able to make them by the time needed.

We cheerfully refer to all using our wheels, and are assured that all will affirm that our wheels accomplish all and even more than we claim for them. Address

The present is an epoch of this kind, and this Great Remedy, now offered to the public, in connection with the theory on which it is based is destined to effect an entire revolution in the treatment of the diseases of by eradicating the disease entirely from the blood. The FOUNTAIN OF LIFE is composed entirely of vegetable extracts; it contains no Mercury or other mineral substance.

The Proprietor and Discoverer of this Sovereign Remedy CHALLENGES THE WORLD to furnish anything, from the days of Æsculapius down to the present time, in the arcana of Medical Science, which can vie with or equal the intrinsic properties of this Great Blood Purifier. Its value has been tested with the [illegible] in the most obstinate cases of Scrofula, that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians in the world. No matter what form the dreadful disease of SCROFULA and KING'S EVIL may have assumed, it can in no way be [illegible] and certainly arrested in its progress by HENLEY'S GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER. Those [illegible] into their graves, who had they made [illegible] FOUNTAIN OF LIFE might now be [illegible] ings of life and health. It requires [illegible] merit and intrinsic value to sustain [illegible] stern ordeal of public experiment the FOUNTAIN OF LIFE has stood the test trial, and is the [illegible]

Dr HENLEY guarantees to CURE any case of SCROFULA or KING'S EVIL in the world and eradicate the disease entirely from the system, or no charge will be made—provided they will secure him his pay when they are cured.

FOR REFERENCE.

I would refer you to L. L. Peck, of Portland, Oregon, and numbers of others, as to what a [illegible] effect it had in a short time, in cases that had baffled the skill of physicians for years.

Sheriff's Sale

BY virtue of an execution issued out of the County Court of Linn county, State of Oregon, to me directed, in favor of Parr[illegible] & Atkinson against Isaac Hays, defendant, I did, on the [illegible] day of April, A. D. 1867, levy on the [illegible] frame house, &c, &c, on lot 8, in block 18, in Couch's Addition, together with the lease hold thereto, as the property of the above named defendant, and will proceed to sell the same at public auction in front of the Court House door, in Multnomah county, on Thursday, the 6th day of June, A. D. 1867, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M., to satisfy the above execution and costs, amounting to eighty-[illegible] 50-100 dollars costs and accruing costs.

JACOB STITZEL,
Sheriff of Multnomah county, Oregon.
Portland, May 8, 1867

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF Oregon, for Multnomah county.—John M. Breck, plaintiff, vs Thomas J Allen, Rachael Allen, Levi Allen, defendants.—Suit in equity.

To the defendant, Levi Allen, non resident: In the name of the State of Oregon you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit, on the first day of the next term of the said court which shall be held after the expiration of six weeks from the first publication of this summons, to wit: The second Monday of June 1867, and if you fail so to answer, for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the court for judgment against you by default, and will apply to the court for the relief in said complaint demanded, which as against you consists in reforming a certain mortgage executed by Thomas J Allen and wife to Daniel L. Prettyman upon a certain tract of land, in said county, conveyed by the said Prettyman to the said Thomas J Allen by deed bearing date the 10th day of January, 1865, and also to postpone a certain other mortgage executed by the said Thomas J. Allen and wife to you the said Levi bearing date the [illegible] day of December, 1865, upon the land in the plaintiff's mortgage mentioned.
